WELCOME

A message from our Manager

HELLO DEAR ONES,

please allow me to start with another heartfelt thank you for the unforgettable time we spent in Budapest.

We were very touched by your entirely positive feedback. We hope all the more that you will continue to revive the personal contacts you have made and that you will keep in regular contact to communicate about joint projects.

If we can support you here, please always let us know at any time.

At the same time I would also like to take this opportunity to thank you for your patience with regard to new information on our upcoming 3rd Annual Meeting next year. Since our own demands to gather as many participants as possible in one place are very high, we unfortunately have to keep you waiting a little longer.

Furthermore I would also like to say another and last big thank you for your participation in voting on our questions about the further EPN development, be it ideas for the AGM, possible online meetings or the WA group. We would like to assure you that we can only grow and support you through your feedback, which is why we evaluate every opinion.

So, as this will be our last issue for this year, it only remains for me to wish you a great pre-Christmas time with your loved ones. Have a good time during this very dark time of year, at least here in Bremen - we very much hope to be able to meet as many kind faces as possible in Antwerp at the end of November.

Yours sincerely, Josefine

Unstable economy hurts Port of Antwerp-Bruges throughput

UNSTABLE ECONOMY HURTS PORT OF ANTWERP-BRUGES THROUGHPUT

You can read the full article HERE

After nine months, the total throughput of Port of Antwerp-Bruges was 204.4 million tonnes, a drop of 6 per cent compared to the same period last year. The drop, looking at the percentage, was similar to that of the port of Rotterdam, with the reasons for the decline in throughput being the same.

The still unstable geopolitical and economic conditions are negatively impacting demand for container traffic around the world, while the picture is still mixed for other cargo flows.

Thanks to the strong international position of the unified port, for which sustainable growth remains the priority, the market share of the container segment is growing compared to the other ports in the Hamburg – Le Havre range.

The Eurozone economy is under pressure from interest rates, which have risen sharply. Despite the drop in energy prices, the global economic situation also remains volatile and future indicators point to a continued economic downturn. As a result of this uncertain economic climate, containerised trade flows are falling around the world.

For Port of Antwerp-Bruges, this is reflected in a 6.5 per cent drop in container throughput in terms of tonnage, and 6.8 per cent in TEUs, compared to the same period in 2022. Despite the decline in container throughput, Port of Antwerp-Bruges' market share in the Hamburg – Le Havre range nevertheless grew by 1 per cent point, to 30.6 per cent in the first half of this year.

Breakbulk in line with pre-covid period

Conventional breakbulk is holding up relatively well despite the weak economic climate, with throughput volumes in line with the pre-covid period. Compared to the same period in 2022, which was marked by a strong post-covid recovery, throughput is down 18.7 per cent, reaching 7.8 million tonnes. Due to a drop in European steel production and lower demand, the throughput of steel, the main commodity group within this segment, is down 17.6 per cent.
